

“The Summer of Discontent”- Civil Unrest 2011

Venue: Army & Navy Club, 36-39 Pall Mall, London, SW1Y 5JN, UK

Programme - Thursday 23 June 2011

A seminar exploring the implications of Civil Unrest for Business

12:30-13:00	ARRIVAL & REGISTRATION of PARTICIPANTS (please note Dress code for the Army & Navy Club)
13:00	1. Opening Remarks Chris Needham-Bennett & Phil Russell, Needhams 1834
13:20-15:15	SESSION ONE - 115 MINUTES, GUEST SPEAKERS
13:20	2. Global Protests: Enterprise Crisis Management during a Pandemic of Unrest Jason Melia & Simon Ellis, British Council
13:40	3. Uncivil Unrest: The Darker Side Steve Pearl, ex Head of NETCU and Agenda Security Services
14:00	4. What you can expect from Your Local Authority Rob Bell, Royal Borough of Kingston
14:20	5. Protest: The Police Perspective Roger Gomm, The Metropolitan Police
15:00-15:15	6. Q&A 's for Speakers– 10 minutes
15:15-15:30	TEA, COFFEE BREAK
15:30-17:00	SESSION TWO - 90 MINUTES, INTERACTIVE EXERCISE
15:30	7. “The Summer of Discontent” - Main Business Continuity Team Exercise – All invited guests to partake in the team challenges with Needhams 1834
16:50	Debrief / Q&A 's – 10 minutes
17:00-18:00	8. NETWORKING, DRINKS & CANAPES
18:00	EVENT CONCLUDES

Important:

- Dress Code is strictly business attire for gentlemen and ladies. Gentlemen are requested to wear jackets and ties which is compulsory at the Army & Navy Club.
- Event is by invitation and registration only and is a free to attend event hosted by Needhams 1834 Limited. Please contact us on Tel: +44 (0)20 7353 9498 or email yvonne@needhams1834.com for additional information.
- Needhams 1834 Limited reserves the right to make revisions to the published programme.